Tom Ammiano for Mayor

"I will build a city for everyone
—a truly livable city that works for a lifetime, whether you are my granddaughter's age or mine. This election is for the people who live real lives in San Francisco. The City is more than a stopover to the suburbs or the street. It's your hometown. It's your future."

Tom Ammiano for Mayor

Tom Ammiano is clearly the environmental choice for Mayor. From fighting for the needs of transit riders citywide, to working to improve air quality in Bayview Hunter's Point, Tom has been a tireless champion for a livable, sustainable city for all of us. His work on PUC reform, workers' health and green buildings, solar power and public power are just a few examples of his 20 years of commitment to a healthy urban environment and a clean city government. Join the Sierra Club, San Francisco Tomorrow and the San Francisco League of Conservation Voters in voting for Tom Ammiano on November 4th!

Proposition K: Yes

Environmental groups and leaders support Prop K to keep San Francisco moving! It will keep our existing transportation system—streets and sidewalks, trains and buses—in good repair, improve and expand the bicycle network and pedestrian safety, and create a fast and convenient citywide rapid bus and rail network. VOTE YES ON PROPOSITION K FOR A LIVABLE CITY!

Proposition C: Yes

Prop C is designed to improve city services and increase public accountability. It requires the city to set service standards and conduct annual management and performance audits of city departments. Prop C will also require the City to post maintenance schedules on the web, create a central complaints hotline, and clean up city contracting. Vote Yes on Prop C.

Proposition L: Yes

A meaningful quality of life requires a reasonable minimum wage and Prop L is a vital step in that direction. Vote Yes on L.

Proposition E: No

While ethics reform sounds like a good idea, Prop E won't improve the performance of the city's ethics commission. Vaguely-worded new provisions will create legal muddles that further tax the department, and the unwieldy procedure to reform ethics laws will make fixing ethics laws difficult. Vote No on E.

Proposition M: No

Prop M is a mean-spirited attack on the City's poorest for political gain. The city already bans on aggressive pan-handling, but Prop M needlessly criminalizes homelessness, taking resources from effective solutions like housing and services. Vote No on M.

Proposition G: Yes

Prop G's "Rainy Day Fund" will improve city finances in good and bad times, encouraging smart investments during good times, and protecting city services during bad times. Prop G will help insure stable funding for schools and parks. Vote Yes on G

Proposition N: No

Prop N sounds good—disability insurance for cab drivers. Unfortunately, most cab drivers are ineligible, and Prop N will keep lucrative taxi permits in the hands of non-drivers. It's unfair and misleading; vote No on N.
