Make a Difference: VOTE Nov 4th

Proposition A: Yes

Prop A is a vote for our hospital and a vote for the health of our City. We believe that our relationship with the environment requires beautiful, comfortable and healthy urban living and our hospital is a key part of that vision. Yes on A! savesfgeneral.com

Proposition B: Yes

Prop B will fund building new affordable housing in San Francisco for years. Our chronic affordable housing shortage is a serious crisis and this is a necessary solution. Yes On B! propb2008.org

Proposition D: Yes

Prop D will restore historic buildings at Pier 70, clean up 150 years of environmental contamination and create up to 20 acres of open space overlooking San Francisco Bay, including important links in the Bay Trail. Yes on Prop D! pier70sf.org

Proposition H: Yes

Prop H commits San Francisco to phasing in 100% clean renewable energy by 2040. Such bold decisive action will make San Francisco a global leader in the fight against climate change. Don't believe PG&E's multi-million dollar smear campaign! Vote Yes On H! sfcleanenergy.com

Lopez

Wynns

Fewer, Lopez, Wynns & Yee for School Board

The best choices for School Board are two dedicated incumbents, Jill Wynns and Norman Yee, and two non-profit education advocates, Sandra Fewer & Barbara "Bobbie" Lopez.

Hernandez

Jackson

Marks

Wolfe

Hernandez, Jackson, Marks & Wolfe for Community College Board

City College will be best served if the incumbent and environmental advocate, Milton Marks, is joined by newcomers Mary Hernandez, Chris Jackson, and Bruce Wolfe.

Chiu

District 3 Supervisor: Chiu, Gantner

We can count on David Chiu to defend our environment from polluters. David has a solid record as a neighborhood leader, attorney, and criminal prosecutor. He will fight to expand neighborhood parks, protect the Bay, safeguard our unique waterfront, promote clean energy and fix MUNI. David is endorsed by the SF Democratic Party and the Sierra Club and he is our #1 choice for District 3 Supervisor. Our #2 choice is Tony Gantner.

Yes on 1A: High Speed Rail!

Prop 1A is an opportunity California can't pass up. In addition to creating jobs and attracting businesses, it will prevent pollution, fight global warming, and reduce our dependence on foreign oil. Vote Yes on 1A! californiahighspeedtrains.com

US Congress: Nancy Pelosi

Nancy Pelosi, a champion for the environment, has averaged 95% on the League of Conservation scorecard for years. As Speaker of the House, she wields important power to fight for our environmental values. Vote for Nancy!

Leno

State Senate: Mark Leno

Assemblyman Mark Leno has fought for a long list of environmental legislation, from climate change, to banning harmful chemicals, to protecting our oceans, to clean energy. He'll do more great things in the State Senate.

Ammiano

Tom Ammiano for State Assembly

Tom Ammiano has been one of the strongest voters for the environment while at the Board of Supervisors. From transit to air quality, from PUC reform to green buildings, Tom has fought for it all. We strongly endorse him for State Assembly.

Radulovich

Radulovich for BART Board

Tom Radulovich has been a tireless champion of smart planning and sustainable transit at BART. A knowledgeable and active leader, Tom has made his position at the BART Board a platform to make both BART and the City better.
